“He said to them, “Because of your meager faith; for truly I say to you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, “Move from here to there and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you.”

Matthew 17:20

Asking God To Move Mountains, Not Ant-Hills.

by: Rev. Jonathan Fulton

I am thankful that I have a God who loves me enough to reprove me, and correct me when I am wrong-and there has been a lot of reprovng and correcting for me this past year!

This may come as a surprise to you, I know it was for me, (said jokingly of course) but I am not always right. I make so many mistakes, and I fail so often-it's embarrassing! Last year's journey for me was spent on a difficult road learning that prayer isn't about asking God for what "I" want, and receiving what "I" want. Instead, it's about bending my knee to the Father's will, and being obedient to what He wants to accomplish in and through me!

What I came to realize, is the fact that, prayer isn't about me! It's about glorifying my Father who is in Heaven, and I want to maximally glorify Him in my life!

My most recent reproof from God came when I was praying about our upcoming Back To School Backpack Drive. With everything hectic going on in my personal life, I wanted to quit and not do it this year, or to scale it back to what I considered a more manageable size.

During this time of prayer, I heard the voice of the Lord sternly say to me,

"Stop asking Me to move anthills when I'm willing to move mountains."

Whoops, sorry Lord.

You know, He's right. When refelectiing on this, I had to ask myself, "Am I actively asking God to do the impossible or am I playing it too safe?" God is willing to do what we deem impossible. He's done it in the past and He will do it again! Incredibly, God wants to do the impossible in and through me, but stupid me wants to play it safe. God wants to give me ALL the treasures of Heaven, yet I am satisfied with just a mere taste.

You see what I mean? God wants to do GREAT things. Meanwhile, stupid me wants to hold back. The two will's don't match up, and they need to match in order for great things to happen! So, will my will prevail or will God's? I think we all know the answer.

When you are a servant, you do as the Master says.

I love what Jesus said in Matthew 17:20. He said,

"Because you have so little faith. Truly I say to you, if you have faith as small as a mustard seed, you can say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move. Nothing will be impossible for you."

Read that last part again, "Nothing will be impossible for you."

Do you believe that? We often say we do, but are we living that way? I want to remind you to not hold back.

God wants to do great things in and through you. Today, start to dream big, ask big, and believe big! Remember, nothing is impossible when you have God on your side!
